Ethics and Open Meeting Law Compliance

Mr. Epstein said this item was on the agenda by accident but did encourage Town appointing authorities to get tough on Ethics and Open Meeting Law training for their members, as the Select Board is doing. He particularly asked that minutes be filed on time and spoke about why this is important.

FY2025 Preliminary Budget Recommendation by the Town Administrator and School Superintendent with an Override and without an Override.

Town (click HERE to see the Town Slides): Ms. Garvin reviewed the key points to consider while listening to the presentations at this meeting:

- 23 • Growing expenses and constrained revenue growth since FY2021 have led to a continuously growing 24 budget deficit.
- 25 • The Town has restructured its departments through "smarter, faster, better" efforts.
- 26 • $8.4M override request is on the April 2nd Ballot.
- 27 • 3-year financial plan will cap annual growth rates:
  - 28 ○ Town 2½%
  - 29 ○ Schools 5%
  - 30 ○ Shared Services 2½%

31 She then provided details of the budget challenges, and the history of Town-side budget planning since FY20.
32 She went on to explain why the $8,400,000 override is important, providing details of what will be funded by 33 this override, and the impacts if the override fails. Ms. Garvin then summarized:

- 34 • The Town has controlled costs by restructuring departments, evaluating delivery of services, right sizing
35 and merging school and Town employee benefits.
- 36 • As a result, the Town can maintain its growth within Prop 2½ with an $8.4M Operating Override with a 37 tax impact of $74 for $100k assessed value.
- 38 • The use of one-time funds created an unsustainable deficit.
- 39 • If the override fails Annual Town Meeting will be presented with a budget that is reduced for the Town
40 by $800k in FY2025.
- 41 • In FY2026 an additional $1.3M will need to be cut.

42 Schools (click HERE to see the Schools slides): Dr. Geiser acknowledged that it will be difficult for the 43 community whether or not the override passes. She explained that the goal is to invest in the system and 44 ensure that there is purpose to the level of funds that would come from an override.

45 Dr. Geiser shared what she learned from her entry process and the major themes that were identified:

- 46 • Literacy & Math Curriculum
- 47 • Early Targeted Instruction & Supports
- 48 • Specialized Instruction
- 49 • Responsible and Responsive Budgeting

50 She reviewed the reductions that have occurred over the past 3 years and how those reductions are impacting
51 the current budget.

52 She then explained the budget priorities that are connected to her entry findings, above:

- 53 • Academic Excellence
- 54 • Early Targeted Instruction & Supports
- 55 • Special Education: New In-District Programming
- 56 • Budget Efficiencies & Investments

57 Dr. Geiser provided details of the plan for new in-district Special Education programming including potential
58 savings over one to 3 years, and how the out-of-district tuitions have increased over the last few years. She 59 pointed out that the plan will reduce reliance on out-of-district placements but that this model speaks to 60 reducing future placements, not bringing current placements back into the district.

61 Dr. Geiser then explained the need for updated curriculum especially as it relates to Special Education, and 62 strategies for Controlling Costs – Identifying Efficiencies.

63 Regarding a non-override scenario, Dr. Geiser explained how the School Department approached the 64 expected $2,700,000 in cuts. She pointed out that there would be significant cuts in FY25 but even more (at 65 least $1,700,000) will be needed in FY26, which she detailed.

66 Dr. Geiser then summarized the presentation with information about what would be gained if the override
67 passes, and what would be lost if it fails.

68 Ms. Moriarty presented “A day in the Life of Belmont Students” in FY25 if the override passes and if it fails.
69 Categories were Getting to School, At School, and After School. Click HERE to see the slides.

70 Capital (click HERE to return to the Town slides Start on slide 15): Ms. Garvin then reviewed the Capital
71 benefits that will be realized with a successful override:

- 72 • A balanced approach to Capital budgeting utilizing additional override funds.
- 73 • Adds an additional $250k sidewalk maintenance.
- 74 • Allows annual appropriations into the newly created Capital Stabilization Fund.
  - 75 ○ Capital Fund Current Balance: $763k.

76 She then reviewed the budget details with a successful override, and the multi-year forecast/financial plan. She
77 also explained why using one-time funds for recurring expenses creates the need for an override. She then 78 went on to explained efforts that are underway to ensure fiscal health:

- 79 • Continue to look for ways to increase revenue and reduce expenses.
- 80 • Working Group to Develop Community Compact - commitment to make the override last 3 years.
- 81 • Working Group on Out-of-District Enrollment Budget Strategies.

82 Mr. Epstein explained if there is no override there will be an accelerated drawdown of Free Cash which would
83 create a “cliff” in year 3 where there will be no resources available. He went on to speak about the challenges
84 and uncertainties of those later years.

85 Ms. Dionne explained that there was consideration of other override amounts and how the $8,400,000 amount
86 what chosen. She went on to speak about the number of students who are placed out-of-district and the impact
87 to these students around being part of the community, missed activities, etc. She acknowledged and spoke
88 about the efforts that are being made to find efficiencies and to increase income from sources other than real
89 estate taxes. She then warned about the dire consequences if the override fails.

90 Ms. Doyle asked for confirmation that all Free Cash would be gone by FY27. Mr. Epstein clarified that all
91 excess free cash would be gone although there would still be about $4,000,000 left. Ms. Doyle pointed out that 92 if all Free Cash was used, then the town would not be able to do any borrowing. Ms. Garvin pointed out that if 93 the Bond Rating gets downgraded because of the low Free Cash amount it would be more expensive to 94 borrow.

95 There was further discussion of what might happen in FY2027 with and without an override.

96 Mr. Pickilingis asked how providing more in-district Special Education services will be measured for success.
97 Dr. Geiser explained that these costs will need to be pulled out separately so it does not get absorbed into the
98 larger budget, and explained how that might happen. He then asked if Dr. Geiser’s non-override budget takes
99 into account the likelihood that out-of-district placements would jump due to fewer town resources. Dr. Geiser
100 said that had not really been included because it is unpredictable although other impacts had been accounted
101 for. There was further discussion of how in-district services would be provided.

102 Ms. Checkoway acknowledged the opportunities and amazing staff that Belmont has and the budget
103 challenges that many Districts are facing. There was a discussion of the possibility of losing qualified staff and 104 department leaders.

105 Ms. Garvin provided details of Free Cash and the plan to use it over the next three years. There was a
106 discussion about Free Cash.

107 There was a discussion of access for activities such as club and sports if they become fee based.

108 Ms. Warner asked when the Town might need another override. Mr. Epstein said it has not been modeled but 109 he estimated that it would be in the 3-5 year timeframe although it would be smaller than the one being 110 currently proposed. There was a discussion of this question and future possible overrides, the need for 111 financial planning, and financial discipline.

112 Mr. Taylor asked what would happen in the immediate aftermath of a no override vote (between April 2 and the 113 start of the next fiscal year). Ms. Garvin and Dr. Geiser provided outlines of the schedule of cuts if there is no
114 override. There was a discussion of the Town Meeting that would follow a no override vote.

115 Mr. Taylor asked about funding the Chenery boilers and pension issues, which were discussed.
116 Mr. Weis pointed out that employees expect 2.5% increases just to keep up with inflation, but most employees
117 expect more especially with annual step increases. He added that often more experienced and expensive
118 employees leave or retire and those positions are filled by lower-salary hires and asked if rollover savings have 119 been budgeted by the Town and Schools and recommended that this be included.
120 Ms. Garvin explained the work that her departments have done to stay within 2.5%, which has been
121 consistently achieved.
122 Dr. Geiser explained that there is no deadline for staff to notify the Department about retirements, so it is 123 difficult to predict.
124 There was further discussion about Mr. Weis' comments and questions.
125 Ms. Checkoway asked what the next steps are for the community compact, and how to people could have a
126 voice in that process. Mr. Lubien explained that the Warrant Committee hopes to provide a high-level
127 framework before the override, but the compact would be flushed over the summer and a long-term committee
128 might be established for this.
129 A resident asked how many overrides Belmont has had in the last 20 years, and Mr. Epstein replied that there
130 had been four since 1990, although the resident pointed out that there has only been 1 in the last 20 years.
131 She then asked other questions about the Schools budget, which Dr. Geiser answered.
132 Ellen Schreiber spoke about the loss of FY26 of the extracurricular programs that survive the FY25 cuts.
133 Ira Morgenstern spoke about the possibility of another override in 3-5 years and expressed his concern that
134 there is no plan to solve the financial problem. Ms. Dionne outlined the steps that are being taken to develop a
135 plan and the components that need to be in place before this is done, which she and Mr. Morgenstern
136 discussed.
137 Ade Bapista pointed out that over the last 45 years inflation has been under 2.5% only 11 times, and asked 138 people to think hard about what kind of town they want to live in.
139 Kim Haley-Jackson asked what the cuts to the DEI initiatives would be, which Ms. Garvin provided.
140 Ellen Schreiber asked if library cuts would put the town below the MAR threshold, and Ms. Garvin confirmed
141 that they would since it is already funded at the MAR level.
142 Mr. Epstein announced that the Override is Ballot Question 1, and the Elected to Appointed Assessors is Ballot
143 Question #2 and asked that anything published about the override be factual.
