

2012 Massachusetts Hunting and Fishing Licenses

Effective January 1, 2012, the Town of Belmont will no longer be an authorized agent selling Massachusetts Hunting and Fishing licenses, primarily because of the increase in cost that would be assessed to Belmont to participate.

You may purchase your license online using any computer with internet access - at home or even at your public library. Go to <http://www.mass.gov/dfwele/licensing/index.htm>. You will need a major credit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover or Amex), a local printer to print licenses, permits, and stamps, and plain white letter-size printer paper. For assistance using MassFishHunt or questions about payments, please call: 1-888-773-8450

Towns that will still serve as Massachusetts Hunting and Fishing License agents for 2012 include: Danvers, Dracut, East Brookfield, East Hampton, Hawley, Hubbardston, Ludlow, Millbury, Somerset, Weston, West Tisbury, and Wilmington. Stores, including Dick's Sporting Goods in Natick, will also serve as agents. For a complete list of license agents please refer to the website http://www.mass.gov/dfwele/dfw/recreation/licensing/vendors/license_vendors_n.d.htm.
