PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The citizens of Belmont take great pride in the Belmont Public Schools and appreciate the immeasurable value of public education; and

WHEREAS: The Belmont Public Schools include four elementary schools, one middle school and one high school; all of which have been recognized for their student success; and

WHEREAS: The Burbank School, Butler School, Wellington School, Winn Brook School, Chenery Middle School and Belmont High School are led by a highly dedicated administration staff; and

WHEREAS: At the core of each administration staff is a school principal who works tirelessly to make their school a positive environment for learning; and

WHEREAS: Each principal works with their teaching and support staff to ensure the students' needs are addressed so that they may achieve success and reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS: Our principals are a critical part of our education system whose successful leadership is a notable source of pride for this community.

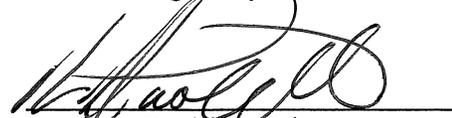

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN, join the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Deval L. Patrick in declaring the month of October 2014, to be "Principals Month". We urge members of the Belmont Community to join us in thanking the Principals of our schools for their hard work and dedication to public education in our community.
