

Advancing Equity and Inclusion in Our Community

Belmont Human Rights Commission Fully Supports Change to Indigenous Peoples' Day

The Belmont Human Rights Commission (BHRC) fully supports the Belmont High School student initiative to change Columbus Day to Indigenous Peoples' Day. This day will be a celebration of the indigenous people who were the true founders and stewards of this land, and it will honor their resilience and their continued contributions in our communities and to our country.