

Dear permitting board,

It has come to my attention that Butternut Bakery is applying for a permit to open shop in Belmont Center. I support Suzan's Samad, she is a successful business owner with a popular bakery already open in Arlington. This type of business would add to the diversity of food vendors in the center and attract customers to the center.

Sincerely, Sarah Olken